

Near East Foundation

Invites you to join us for

INVESTING IN ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Tuesday, September 25

6:30 p.m. | Greenwich Village, NYC

Event by invitation only

Join us for a roundtable discussion with the Near East Foundation, KOIS, and other special guests to discuss the powerful role investing in entrepreneurship can play in responding to humanitarian crises, developing fragile economies and creating livelihood opportunities for refugees and their host communities.

Discussion to be lead by

Charles Benjamin, Near East Foundation President

Béatrice Delperdange, KOIS Head of Bussiness Development

Suma Swaminathan, Privite Equity at Developing World Markets
